Pastel Painting Demo

I'm happy to invite you to a demonstration of pastel painting at the Bradford Brinton Memorial & Museum the weekend of July 30. I'll be painting in or around the reception gallery on both Saturday and Sunday. Saturday I'll be there from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. and Sunday from noon til 3:00.

I plan to work one painting from start to finish, demonstrating the typical steps and techniques I use, but I could end up doing more than that or getting sidetracked and doing something completely different. Please come and be prepared to ask questions. If you've painted in pastel yourself and would like pointers please feel free to ask. If you've thought about it but haven't tried, I'll talk about my methods and materials and maybe help you to get started. If you own a pastel painting and would like to see how it's done, this will be a good chance to see it happen right before your eyes.

For directions to the museum call or go online at www.bbmandm.org / (307) 672-3173.

Solo Show: Of Mountains and Meadows

My show at the Bradford Brinton is ongoing but this coming weekend is the last weekend for it. Officially it closes on August 4th. If you haven't seen it yet and you are going to be in the area this weekend, I'll be there doing the demo mentioned above and it would be great to see you.

The museum is in Big Horn, just south of Sheridan, Wyoming in a very picturesque setting.

Other Shows

If you are in New York City in September you can see one of my pieces in the Pastel Society of America's major exhibit, Pastels Only. March Fields at the right was accepted into the show and will be exhibited at the National Arts Club from September 6 to October 1.

Sheltered Cove, left, will be hung in the Mile High International

Exhibition from August 20 to September 16 at the Curtis Arts and Humanities Center in Greenwood Village, Colorado.

If you'd like to see more of my recent work you can find it on my web site: www.garyhuberart.com.

Enjoy the summer. Thanks for reading.
-Gary
